In the Matter of

VIDALIA HARVESTING, INC.
Complainant

v.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
Respondent
.....

Date Issued: March 4, 1998

Case No.: 98 TLC 7

ORDER OF REMAND

_____ On March 2, 1998, Chief Judge John Vittone assigned this Temporary Labor Certification case to me. On the same day, I received a petition to intervene from Ms. Maudie Lee King, through her counsel. The next day, I informed the parties of Ms. King's petition and directed a response regarding two procedural issues. On March 4, 1998, I received the case file from the Regional Administrator. On the same day, I also received notification from Vidalia Harvesting, Inc., through Mr. W. Grimes, that it was withdrawing its Application for Temporary Labor Certification and request for an expedited review or a de novo hearing before an administrative law judge.

The sole reason the Regional Administrator forwarded the record to the Office of Administrative Law Judges was Vidalia Harvesting's request for an expedited review or hearing. Since that request has now been withdrawn, no further action by the Office of Administrative Law Judges is necessary.

ORDER

Accordingly, the case is REMANDED to the Regional Administrator for appropriate administrative closure.
